

Grants to off-set cost of water meters

Matt Weiser, Sacramento Bee

Sacramento-area communities will share $52 million in federal recovery act funds to install water meters.

The grants, totaling $717 million for water projects statewide, were announced Thursday by Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger.

The money comes from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act via the State Water Resources Control Board and the Department of Public Health.

Read the whole story