

Help for displaced workers

One-Stop Career Centers in South Lake Tahoe and Placerville can help people who have been laid off and who don't expect to return to the industry they left.

Assistance is the through El Dorado County's Human Services Department. The Dislocated Worker Program can also help those who worked in the home and were self-employed.

Applicants must be 18 or older, unemployed or underemployed, and able to support themselves while in training.
