

Seeking literary compassion

Dear Reader,

With the return of winter, we decided it was time to put out a call for guerrilla acts of literary compassion.

Please take a few minutes to read about it, copy your favorite works, and make the world a less lonely place – the power of the written word in action!

Kim Wyatt, Bona Fide Books publisher