

3.7 quake rattles North Shore

A few people in the North Tahoe-Truckee-Reno area were jostled by a minor earthquake Tuesday night.

The 3.7 temblor was recorded at 9:59pm about six miles from Incline Village, according to the UNR Seismological Lab.