

Burn ban in Truckee Meadows

Nasty air in the Truckee Meadows has prompted Washoe County officials to ban the use of wood stoves and fireplaces.

The last time officials issued such a burn ban was in 1994.

People with breathing problems are advised to stay indoors. Strenuous outdoor activity is also being frowned upon in that area.

More information can be obtained by calling (775) 785.4110.