

El Dorado County residents still without power

By Bill Lindelof, Sacramento Bee

Pacific Gas & Electric crews overnight restored electricity to another 2,300 of the utility's customers in the mountains of El Dorado County.

However, about 6,700 customers remain without power four days after a winter snow storm hit at low elevations, forcing tree limbs onto power lines in various parts of the county. In the Placerville area alone, 2,800 customers were still without power.

Read the whole story