

Nevada construction job loss worst in nation

Nevada lost more construction job in November than any other state, according to a federal report. Nevada lost 1,100 construction jobs in the one-month period.

The Associated General Contractors of America said Nevada was tops in the states with the biggest percentage losses in construction employment over the year at 24.7 percent.