

NFL policy change could help Tahoe tourism

Ads for Lake Tahoe will be allowed to be aired during NFL postseason games.

The league changed the rules this week, saying tourist destinations like Tahoe, Reno and Las Vegas that have gaming can televise ads during games Jan. 4-Feb. 28.

The league will decide at a later date if it will continue the policy when the season is over.