

Want to talk to students?

Mt. Tallac High School has a speakers forum that invites community members to speak with students at the school. South Tahoe students get an opportunity to learn that by engaging in conversation with these community member, students can impact positive changes within their school and community.

If you are interested in learning more about this program or would like to volunteer to speak at the school, contact Harry Segal at segalharry@yahoo.com.