

Genoa driver returning to Daytona

Ron Levanduski, Star Gazette

Davy Jones is thankful he's in good health and has another opportunity to prove himself on the racetrack.

The former McGraw, N.Y.-resident, who won the world's two top 24 Hour sports car events at Le Mans and Daytona in the 1990s, will return to the Rolex 24 at Daytona for the first time in 17 years. He'll drive a top-line GT-class Corvette in next month's 48th running of the Grand-Am Rolex Series race.

Jones, 45, who lives near Lake Tahoe, is one of four drivers who will race the No. 07 Godstone Ranch Motorsports Corvette C6.R in the prestigious race on Jan. 30.

Read the whole story