

Lavish Green at Divided Sky

Lavish Green will be at Divided Sky in Meyers on Jan. 15 at 10pm.

Living life and creating honest music for more than 14 years, Lavish Green continues to grind away and work hard to bring entertainment to a wide range of audiences. Whether it is on a huge stage fully blown, a high energy rock show or a more intimate unplugged setting, the band brings an original approach to finding places to sing and play our hearts and souls out.
