

Garridos lobby for right to visit each other in jail

By Sam Stanton, Sacramento Bee

The El Dorado County sheriff is objecting to a request that Phillip and Nancy Garrido be allowed to visit each other in jail, saying it "is breathtaking in its audacity."

Lawyers for the pair say the two accused kidnapppers of Jaycee Lee Dugard need to meet to make family decisions and that they must be allowed to discuss their pending court case.

Read the whole story