

Incline woman pleads not guilty in husband's fatal stabbing

By Reno Gazette-Journal

A 72-year-old Incline Village woman accused of fatally stabbing her elderly husband last year was scheduled a Valentine's Day 2011 trial.

Mary Arlayne Baymiller pleaded not guilty of murder Wednesday during her arraignment in Washoe District Court. She is accused of stabbing her husband, Charles Baymiller, 73, up to 200 times in a rage possibly motivated by her mental anguish over his dementia, and financial worries, according to court records.

Mary Baymiller

Read the whole story