

A note from LTN's publisher

To Lake Tahoe News readers,

New parents often refer to the age of their baby in months, not years.

I'm no different. Lake Tahoe News, my baby, is 6-months-old today.

Running LTN is in some ways like raising a child. It takes time, patience, advice from others and a willingness to admit when you are wrong.

I want to take this time to thank all of you readers, contributors, news tip providers and financial supporters – be it in the form of advertising or making a donation. I could not do this alone.

I want you to feel connected to Lake Tahoe News. I want you to be part of it. I look forward to all of you being here to help nurture Lake Tahoe News as it continues to grow.

Thank you for your support,

Kathryn Reed, LTN publisher
