

Fedora bank bandit strikes again

The fedora bandit is moving north. He hit the Bank of the West in Gridley in Butte County on Monday afternoon.

The man who wears a fedora, sometimes a fake beard and sometimes brandishes a weapon has stolen cash twice at the Bank of the West in Grass Valley on Dec. 22 and March 31, from South Lake Tahoe on Feb. 18, Kings Beach on March 8 and Carson City on April 12.
