

Forum for potential political candidates

Lake Tahoe South Shore Chamber of Commerce is putting together a couple sessions in May to have potential local political candidates understand what is involved in the process.

Click on workshop to get more information and to register to attend the events.