

South Tahoe art walk features new artist

Marcus Ashley Gallery is unveiling a new artist this month. Nick Sninkelletti, 29, will be showing an array of his original paintings and hand-embellished reproductions during the third Friday Art Walk in South Lake Tahoe.

Sninkelletti paints a variety of subjects matter and is known as a colorist and a portrait painter.

The Art Walk will be from 4-7pm on April 16. Sninkelletti will only be painting live on the 16th.

The art walk is in the Village Center at the corner of Highway 50 and Heavenly Village Way in South Lake Tahoe.
