

Snippets about Lake Tahoe

- The owner of the Chinese Buffet on Highway 89 has been talking to South Lake Tahoe officials about moving to the former Carrows building on Highway 50.
- Donner Summit rest areas will be closed for remodeling through the summer. The rest areas on Interstate 80 at Gold Run are still open.
- The recall election for two Fallen Leaf Lake board members will be Aug. 31.
- Former TRPA Executive Director Juan Palma is about to run the Bureau of Land Management's office in Utah.
- Where in the world has South Lake Tahoe's Rick Gunn been? Check out the YouTube video. He is trying to make a living showing his pictures.