

Truckee film company scores big at Houston festival

Eureka Productions of Truckee won six awards this month at the 43rd annual Worldfest-Houston International Film festival.

“We are delighted to say that your Remi Award assumes a very special significance this year, as more than 4,200 category entries were competing from 32 countries,” Hunter Todd, director of WorldFest Houston, said in a press release.

Eureka Productions’ awards include “how-to” instructional videos, a screen play and a documentary about world peace. The complete award list is below, and samples of Eureka Productions videos may be viewed on Youtube.

1. Platinum Remi Award: “Breath through the Pain” category 109A Television Live
2. Silver Remi “Forging a Cherokee Life” category 219 How to Instruction
3. Silver Remi “Tapping into the Collective Unconscious” category 307 documentary under 60 min.
4. Bronze Remi “ World Peace Tour” category 255 World Peace and Understanding
5. Bronze Remi “ A Pilgrimage Journey Three Generations” category 103 A Cultural
6. Bronze Remi “All American Boy” category 702 Biographical

Eureka Productions also has an office in Mendocino. The film company specializes in martial arts and social issues documentary videos. Martial arts production department focuses on cutting edge presentations of qigong, meditation, healing, and the internal martial arts.