

Leadership Lake Tahoe class graduates

Leadership Lake Tahoe, a Lake Tahoe South Shore Chamber of Commerce program, started in 2003 with a mission of identifying and developing current and future leaders through a comprehensive program designed to increase knowledge and awareness of the issues and challenges facing our community.

The program is an intensive 10-month experience to provide information, strategies, contacts, and opportunities for personal and professional growth.
