

Student artwork on display at LTCC

Lake Tahoe Community College's annual Student Art Exhibition is going on now through June 19, with most of the work in the commons area.

The work is the culmination of what students have produced this academic year.

Items range from water colors, to sculpture, to photography to a wild plastic bottle exhibit at the entry.