

Students get a lesson in law enforcement

On June 10, kindergarten students from the Lake Tahoe Environmental Science Magnet School in Meyers took a field trip to the California Highway Patrol office not far from their school.

Learning about law enforcement.
Photo/Provided