

Tahoe-Reno venues set for summer concert season

By Reno Gazette-Journal

Summertime is the biggest time of year for bands to head out on the road. It's when the outdoor amphitheaters take on the big shows and the hottest tours take stages of all sizes. Tours big and small will hit Reno and Tahoe this year, from hitmakers such as Elton John, Rascal Flatts and Justin Bieber, to the smaller, but beloved acts such as Danzig, Ani DiFranco and Dropkick Murphys. While ticket prices aren't coming down a whole lot from previous years, they're not rising much, either. Here's a look at what's to come through Labor Day. Don't see something you like? It never fails that the day we publish our preview, new shows are announced.

Elton
John

Read the whole story