

Fireworks warm the crowds on cool Tahoe night

The chilly night air lit up like it was the Fourth of July on Sunday. It was the annual Labor Day weekend fireworks extravaganza.

The pyrotechnic display shot off from a barge off the South Shore of Lake Tahoe can be seen from various locations. The fireworks are set to music to make it all that much more fun.

Creating
designs
with fireworks

A variety of colors
light up the night
sky.

Fireworks
from Lakeside
Marina.
Photos/How
ie Nave