

Man Black Booked for cheating at Stateline club arrested in Vegas

By Richard N. Velotta, Las Vegas Sun

A New Jersey man who has been on Nevada's List of Excluded Persons – the Black Book – since 1994 and on New Jersey's List of Exclusion since 1989 was arrested in a Las Vegas casino Wednesday morning.

Brent Eli Morris was apprehended by enforcement agents of the state Gaming Control Board at about 1am at Caesars Palace after he was spotted playing craps by casino surveillance personnel.

Read the whole story