Sierra Nevada College offering flu shots

Free flu shots are coming to Sierra Nevada College in Incline Village.

On Oct. 22 from 11am-2pm in Patterson Hall, Hometown Health will offer free walk-in flu vaccinations to individuals with the following insurance plans:

- · Hometown Health HMO or PPO
- · Senior Care Plus
- · State of Nevada HMO
- · Medicare Primary, with no other HMO. (Must have Part B.)

The seasonal flu shot will be available to students and others without the required insurance for a charge of $28 made payable by cash or check.

In order to receive this service free of charge, a valid insurance card must be shown at the time of vaccination. The 2010 influenza vaccine includes H1N1 protection.

For more flu prevention information, go to www.flu.gov.