

Nevada adds seat in House

By Steve Timko, Reno Gazette-Journal

Nevada has picked up a fourth seat in the U.S. House of Representatives, according to U.S. Census Bureau figures released today.

Despite a population contraction toward the end of the decade, Nevada remained the fastest growing state in the country between 2000 and 2010.

Read the whole story