

3-day river festival in Reno in May

The Reno River Festival returns to downtown's Truckee River Whitewater Park for year No. 8 on May 6–8.

The festival's three days of nonstop outdoor fun includes live music and entertainment along with the return of crowd favorites such as the Friday night Kick-Off Party and concert with English Beat, 4th annual Run Amuck run and stand-up paddle board, boatercross and freestyle competitions featuring some of the world's top whitewater athletes.

The 2nd annual Humans in Motion short video contest also hits screens again, featuring a $1,000 grand prize, in addition to the return of the Holland Project's annual Double Dutch battle.

To register or for more information, go online or call (775) 784.9400, ext. 119.