

What local issue have you addressed at a public forum so officials understand what the public believes? And what was the result?