

Meeting focuses on ADA issues in South Tahoe

ADA 101 for Businesses is a panel board consisting of a lawyer experienced in ADA lawsuits, certified access specialists, insurance broker knowledgeable in what insurance companies will cover and a disabled member of the public.

The June 15 10am-noon event put on by South Lake Tahoe will include:

- Discussing the priorities of accessibility and what the state and feds require.
- Explaining what a unreasonable hardship is and when it can be applied.
- Clearing up myths on who needs to comply with accessibility requirements.
- Having the attorney discuss how to handle a lawsuit, proper procedure on how to respond, costs associated with a suit, lease agreements.
- The insurance agent will discuss on what most companies will cover in a lawsuit and the improvements.
- How to interpret a CASp Report and how to use it.
- Clarifying TRPA coverage issues in dealing with ADA upgrades.

The meeting is at Lake Tahoe Airport.
