

BLM issues fire restrictions for western Nevada

Fire restrictions went into effect Saturday in the Bureau of Land Management's Carson City District, Sierra Forest Fire Protection District in Carson City and Storey County.

Campfires outside developed campgrounds or picnic areas, smoking outside such areas or vehicles, welding, charcoal grills, open burning and the use of tracer rounds and steel-core ammunition while recreational shooting are all prohibited.