

Snippets about Lake Tahoe

- What do think about BlueGo, the bus service on the South Shore? Take this online survey to let officials know your answers.

- For the first time in Burning Man's 25-year history tickets sold out before the event started.
- Tahoe City resident Tamara Fritz has been fined $35,000 by the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency for illegally constructing a pier extension. Her spread is the locale for the annual Oscar de la Renta Fashion Show fundraiser for the League to Save Lake Tahoe. This year's event is Aug. 6 from 11am-2pm.
- The World Series of Poker, which starts in September, will be at Harveys in Stateline Nov. 10-21.
- Send suggestions for Lake Tahoe News' question of the week to info@LakeTahoeNews.net.