

Winners selected for celebrity golf tournament

Lake Tahoe News subscribers Connor Yingling and Judi Allen are going to the American Century Celebrity Golf Tournament next week.

First, they knew Neil Lomax, who has played in the previous five tournaments, is not coming back this year. Second, they were randomly selected from the people with correct answers to the trivia question to win the pair of tickets to one day of the tournament.

More opportunities to win tickets to the 22nd annual event at Edgewood Tahoe in Stateline will be coming soon. Keep reading Lake Tahoe News.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the first round of the giveaway.
