

If you were to start from scratch with employee benefits for city, county and state workers, what would you offer in terms of retirement and health care and who would pay what?