

Measure R to be on Nov. 8 ballot

The board that oversees recreation Measure S on Wednesday voted on all the necessary motions to go back to the voters.

Measure R would revise the 11-year-old Measure S to allow for more bike trails to be given funding for maintenance and more money for ball fields.

The boundaries for the people paying the $18 a year fee are those who live within the Lake Tahoe Unified School District.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report