

Should public facilities be run by private entities? Why or why not? And which ones?