

Firefighters have handle on Yosemite area fire; all roads open

All roads leading to Yosemite National Park are open. Firefighters continue to battle the blaze that was started by a motor home a week ago.

The fire as of Thursday morning was 85 percent contained. It had charred 5,231 acres outside the park.

Full containment is expected this weekend.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report