

Police dog finds suicidal S. Tahoe man in woods

Argo, one of South Lake Tahoe's police dogs, tracked down a suicidal man in the forest on Friday.

Argo led officers to a forested area near the intersection of Keller Avenue and Markofer Way where the subject was found lying on the ground in the tree line. Paramedics treated the subject for his injuries and transported him to Barton Memorial Hospital.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report