

Time to locate water, gas valves before winter

Now that the autumn months are upon us, it's a good time to locate and label, or visually indicate, where your water and gas shut-off valves are.

Do this inside and outside of your home. Then, when the snow flies again, and the possibility of frozen and buried pipes occurs, we will be able to quickly minimize any damage to your property.

– Sallie Ross-Filgo, SLTFD