

Snippets about Lake Tahoe

- Caesars Entertainment Corp., owners of Harrah's Lake Tahoe and Harveys, is planning to become a public company again. Expect an IPO next year. In 2008, private equity firms Apollo Management Group and Texas Pacific Group bought the Las Vegas-based company for $30.7 billion.
- More than 50 people applied for the superintendent job at Tahoe Truckee Unified School District. Nine candidates will be interviewed starting next week. Finalists will be interviewed in early December, with the appointment made in early January.
- Tahoe Maritime Museum in Homewood is having a free open house Nov. 19 from 10am-5pm.
- Kingsbury General Improvement District's board on Nov. 15 agreed to seek a $5 million general obligation bond to pay for improvements of the water system.
- The League of California Cities appointed South Lake Tahoe City Councilwoman Angela Swanson to the Policy Committee on Transportation, Communication and Public Works as well as the Sacramento Valley Division Committee.