

Environmental writer to speak at LTCC

Lake Tahoe Community College is hosting a reading, conversation, and book signing with environmental novelist Li Miao Lovett at 7pm Feb. 9 in the college's Aspen Room.

Lovett is a San Francisco-based author of "In the Lap of the Gods", a novel about the displacement of millions along China's Yangtze River.

The event is free and open to the public. Books will be available for purchase.

This event was made possible by Poets and Writers Inc. through a grant it has received from The James Irvine Foundation.
