

If you were to create the salary schedule for public entities – be it city-county-state level – what would you pay people in salary and benefits and why?