If you were to create the salary schedule for public entities — be it city-county-state level — what would you pay people in salary and benefits and why?