

South Lake Tahoe Health Connective Looking for members

Licensed natural health care practitioners in the South Shore are being invited to join a free networking/referral group to help promote their practices and the benefits of natural health care to the community.

The group is called South Lake Tahoe Health Connective. It is being spearheaded by Mandy Kendall.

Email mandykendall1@gmail.com for more information or go online to sign up.