

Auditions at LTCC for 'The Rocky Horror Show'

Lake Tahoe Community College is having auditions for the live stage version of "The Rocky Horror Show," the hit cult classic by Richard O'Brien.

Brad, Janet, Frank 'N' Furter and the whole gang hit the stage in the ultra-campy classic that unfolds on a dark and stormy night where an uptight couple seeks refuge at the castle of a mad scientist just as he unveils his latest creation.

Auditions are April 3 at 7pm in the Duke Theatre. Check the LTCC theater department callboard or website for audition requirements. Everyone will be asked to sing from the show. PDFs of the sheet music and MP3 recordings of the songs to learn for auditions may be found online.

Scripts are available on reserve in the LTCC library and audition sides are available at the LTCC theater department callboard.

For further information, call (530) 541.5660, ext. 240.