

Classic car show part of Placer County expo

Placer County Sheriff's Council is hosting its third annual expo and classic car show June 2.

Day with a Deputy will be at Regional Park in north Auburn, from 11am-3pm. The free event will also include a classic car show.

Throughout the day there will be demonstrations by the Sheriff Office's Special Enforcement Team, mounted team, K-9 handlers and their dog partners, the bomb squad, the helicopter crew and more. Vendors will have booths set up on the park grounds and food will be available for purchase.

A classic car show will be included and the public is invited to display their vintage cars. For more information about the car show, call (530) 906.7085.
