

Endurance triathlon starts in Zephyr Cove

The inaugural Expedition Man Endurance Festival will be Aug. 25 throughout Northern Nevada.

This is the region's first ultra distance triathlon.

The course starts swimmers at Zephyr Cove.

The 112-mile bike ride will utilize a variety of Northern Nevada's scenery, including a 1,400-foot elevation drop into Carson City.

Three fast out-and-back's around the Sparks Marina will cap off this extraordinary race.

For more information, go online.