

Herbal medicine class on South Shore

Herbal Medicine Making will be taught June 29 from 5:30-8:30pm through Lake Tahoe Community College's Connect Education program.

Herbal medicines can be shrouded in mystery, but in reality they are simple to make when you tailor them to meet your specific needs.

In this workshop, there will be discussions on tastes, types, and basic chemistry and formulating.

For more information, go online.