

Lecture about aquatic invasive species

Jonelle Bright from the Tahoe Resource Conservation District will give a lecture June 21 at 10:30am at the Tahoe Maritime Museum on aquatic invasive species.

She will talk about how they affect Lake Tahoe, what is being done to prevent spread of AIS, and the history of the boat inspection program.

The lecture in Homewood is free and open to members and non-members.