

Missing parolee behind bars in Douglas County

The California parolee who was believed to have been in Douglas County is in jail.

Randy Nourse turned himself into Douglas County deputies on June 6 at 6:45am at the Minden office.

Nourse was previously reported as a fugitive from justice by California's Department of Parole and Probation.

Nourse will remain in the Douglas County Jail pending his extradition to California.

– Lake Tahoe News staff report